

Lösungen: Das englische Passiv

1. Setze die passende Form von to be in den Passivsatz ein:

Aktiv	Passiv
James builds a house.	A house is built by James.
The cat chased the mouse.	The mouse was chased by the cat.
The Stillers have bought two new cars.	Two new cars have been bought by the Stillers.
The thief had set the house on fire.	The house had been set on fire by the thief.
I will kick the ball.	The ball will be kicked by me.
Mike is going to do his homework.	His homework is going to be done by Mike.

2. Setze die Form des past participle (Partizip Perfekt) in die Lücken ein:

Aktiv	Passiv
Cindy steals a bike.	A bike is stolen by Cindy.
Richard caught the ball.	The ball was caught by Richard.
Mary and Mike have played football.	Football has been played by Mary and Mike.
Charles had hurt his foot.	His foot had been hurt by Charles.
We will open a store.	A store will be opened by us.
Hillary is going to teach English.	English is going to be taught by Hillary.

3. Wähle den richtigen Passivsatz aus:

Anthony drives the car.

- Anthony was driving a car.
- A car was driven by Anthony.
- The car is driven by Anthony.
- Cars are driven by Anthony.

The children bought toys.

- Toys have been buyed by the children.
- Toys was bought by the children.
- Toys were buyed by the children.
- Toys were bought by the children.

Larry has already watched the movie.

- The movie has already been watched by Larry.
- The movie have already been watched by Larry.
- Larry has been watching the movie already.
- Movies already have been watched by Larry.

The Greens will eat chicken for dinner tonight.

- Chicken will be ate by the Greens for dinner tonight.
- Chicken is eaten by the Greens for dinner tonight.
- Tonight the Greens will eat chicken for dinner.
- Chicken will be eaten by the Greens for dinner tonight.