

Übungen: Future-Formen:

1. Will or going-to future? Chose one.

- a. Look at the weather forecast. It will / is going to rain tomorrow.
- b. We will / are going to visit my grandparents the day after tomorrow.
- c. The party will / is going to start at 8 o'clock.
- d. I will / am going to call you later, I promise.
- e. I'm sure we will / are going to see Lisa at the party next week.

2. Future progressive

Use the future progressive forms of the verbs in brackets.

- a. I _____ (to watch) a new movie during our flight to Italy.
- b. My mother _____ (to pick up) my sister at 6.
- c. Grandma _____ (to bake) a cake on Sunday.
- d. I _____ (to not ride) my bike during the match later.
- e. Anna _____ (to sing) loudly at the concert tonight.

3. Future perfect

Translate these sentences.

- a. Next week I will have written my first exam.
- b. Tomorrow morning my sister will have arrived in London.
- c. I will have finished school this time next year.
- d. My family will have moved to the new house before Halloween.
- e. The teacher will have graded our exams by the time school starts.